

President's Responsibilities:

- 70) Choose a new Supreme Court justice because someone on the Court is retiring.
 - 71) Decide whether to approve or reject a bill that I believe would help millions of people, but costs a lot of money.
 - 72) Decide whether to let someone go from jail because there is new evidence the trial was unfair, even though I don't know if the person is guilty of the crime.
 - 73) Decide whether to send more troops into war knowing that some will die, but it will keep the country safe
 - 74) Follow the Constitution and the law even if I disagree with it
 - 75) Give my yearly "State of the Union" speech on what's happening in the U.S
 - 76) Hold a press conference where I ask Congress to do more.
 - 77) Lead weekly meetings where I ask the leaders of the government offices (called agencies) for their advice on how to handle the country's most difficult problems
 - 78) Try to negotiate an agreement with another country that would reduce both countries nuclear weapons.
